MEDIA RELEASE

MR GLENN THOMPSON TO JOIN
NATIONAL RECONSTRUCTION FUND BOARD

XX October 2023

Mr Glenn Thompson has been appointed to the National Reconstruction Fund Corporation Board for four years commencing from 17 October 2023.

Mr Thompson has been the Assistant National Secretary of the Australian Manufacturing Workers Union since 2003 and brings over 20 years' experience in industrial relations and manufacturing.

He also brings significant board experience as a current member of the boards of AustralianSuper, UCover, and the Australian Construction Industry Trust Ltd.

Mr Thompson has previously held board memberships at Cbus, Coal Mining Industry (Long Service Leave Funding) Corporation, and the Construction Industry and Property Services Industry Skills Council.

The NRFC Board is responsible for independently administering the Albanese government's $15 billion National Reconstruction Fund, the biggest investment in growing Australia's manufacturing capacity in living memory.

Modelled on the successful Clean Energy Finance Corporation, The NRF Corporation will provide loans, guarantees and equity to support investment across seven priority areas: Value-add in resources; value-add in agriculture, forestry and fisheries; transport; medical science, renewables and low emission technologies, defence capability and enabling technologies.

Mr Thompson will join the other eight NRF Board members who were appointed in August, led by Chair Martijn Wilder.

Quotes attributable to the Hon Ed Husic, Minister for Industry and Science:

"A Board with the right mix of skills, and the ability to balance policy and financial objectives, is critical to the success of the National Reconstruction Fund Corporation.

"Mr Thompson's passion for job creation complements the existing expertise of the NRFC Board, particularly in the areas of Australian manufacturing and industrial capability.

"This is about setting Australia up for the future, with secure well-paid jobs in thriving new industries."
