Subject: FW: Aluminium Extrusion Review [DLM=For-Official-Use-Only]

Dear Kevin

I refer to earlier correspondence advising you about the review of the anti-dumping measures applying to aluminium extrusions exported to Australia from the People's Republic of China. In view of the considerable overlap between the periods being examined by the current anti-circumvention inquiry (No. 241) and the review, I am proposing to rely on any information submitted by, and verification processes undertaken with respect to, the following companies for the anti-circumvention inquiry for the purposes of the review:

- P&O Aluminium (Brisbane) Pty Ltd;
- P&O Aluminium (Melbourne) Pty Ltd;
- P&O Aluminium (Perth) Pty Ltd; and
- P&O Aluminium (Sydney) Pty Ltd.

Unless you propose otherwise, no additional information will be sought from these companies and no additional verification of information provided will be carried out by the Anti-Dumping Commission as part of the review process.

If you wish

- that any information provided to the Anti-Dumping Commission by any of these companies for the purposes of the anti-circumvention inquiry not be taken into account for the purposes of the review; or
- to lodge additional information on behalf of any or all of the abovenamed companies for the purposes of the review

please contact me as soon as possible to discuss.

Regards

Mick Kenna
