

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2015/59

Rod in Coils

Exported from the Republic of Indonesia, Taiwan and the Republic of Turkey

Termination of Part of Investigation

Customs Act 1901 – Part XVB

On 10 April 2014, I, Dale Seymour, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (the Commission), initiated an investigation into the alleged dumping of rod in coils (the goods) exported to Australia from the Republic of Indonesia (Indonesia), Taiwan and the Republic of Turkey (Turkey) following an application lodged by OneSteel Manufacturing Pty Ltd under subsection 269TB(1) of the Customs Act 1901 (the Act).

The Commission published a notice in The Australian on 10 April 2014 notifying of the initiation of the investigation, and issued Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No. 2014/27, which contains further details on the investigation, available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

As a result of the Commission's investigation, I am satisfied that:

- in relation to PT Ispat Indo, an exporter of the goods from Indonesia, there has been no dumping of the goods and therefore have decided to terminate the investigation in accordance with subsection 269TDA(1)(b)(i) of the Act so far as it relates to PT Ispat Indo;
- in relation to Habaş Sinai ve Tibbi Gazlar İstihsal Endüstrisi A.Ş (Habaş), an exporter of the goods from Turkey, there has been dumping of the goods however the dumping margin, when worked out under section 269TACB, is less than 2% (and is negligible), and therefore have decided to terminate the investigation in accordance with subsection 269TDA(1)(b)(ii) of the Act so far as it relates to Habaş; and
- pursuant to subsection 269TDA(4) of the Act, the total volume of goods that have been exported to Australia over a reasonable examination period from Turkey that have been dumped is negligible and, therefore, have decided to terminate the investigation so far as it relates to Turkey in accordance with subsection 269TDA(3) of the Act.

In making the decisions to terminate, I have considered the application, submissions from interested parties, the Statement of Essential Facts No. 240 and Preliminary Affirmative Determination No. 240, submissions in response to that report, and other relevant information.

Termination Report No 240, which sets out reasons for the termination decisions, including the material findings of fact or law upon which the decisions are based, has been placed on the Commission's public record, which may be examined at the Commission office by contacting the case manager on the details provided below. Alternatively, the public record is available at www.adcommission.gov.au.

A notice of the decision to terminate part of the investigation was published in The Australian newspaper on 14 May 2015.

My final recommendations and report in relation to the investigation in respect of Indonesia and Taiwan was provided to the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry and Science on 13 May 2015.

The applicant may request a review of this decision to terminate part of the investigation by lodging an application with the Anti-Dumping Review Panel in the approved form and manner within 30 days of the publication of this notice.

Enquiries about this notice may be directed to the Case Manager on telephone number +61 3 8539 2437, fax number +61 3 8539 2499 (outside Australia), or email at operations3@adcommission.gov.au.
