

ANTI-DUMPING NOTICE NO 2022/021

Copper tube

Exported to Australia from the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Investigation No 580 into alleged dumping

Extension of time granted to issue the Final Report

Customs Act 1901 (Cth) – Part XV B

On 22 March 2021, the Commissioner of the Anti-Dumping Commission (Commissioner) published a notice (initiation notice)<sup>1</sup> announcing the initiation of an investigation into the alleged dumping of copper tube (the goods)<sup>2</sup> exported to Australia from the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam).

The initiation notice advised that the Commissioner would publish a statement of essential facts (SEF) on the public record by 12 July 2021. The initiation notice also advised that the Commissioner would make a recommendation to the Minister for Industry, Energy and Emissions Reduction (the Minister) in a final report on, or before, 24 August 2021.

As advised in Anti-Dumping Notice (ADN) No 2021/154, the Commissioner extended the due dates to publish the SEF and provide the final report to the Minister. The commission published the SEF on the public record on 29 October 2021.<sup>3</sup> The Commissioner was due to give the Minister a final report with his findings and recommendations arising from the investigation on, or before, 25 February 2022.

<sup>3</sup> Refer to Statement of Essential Facts No. 580, item number 14 of the commission's electronic public register.

To allow the commission to consider submissions made by interested parties in response to the SEF, I, Isolde Lueckenhausen, General Manager of the commission, requested a one week extension of the deadline for the Commissioner to provide his final report and recommendations to the Minister.<sup>4</sup>

The Commissioner has, under section 269ZHI(3) of the Customs Act 1901 (Cth) (the Act), extended the deadline to provide the final report and recommendations.<sup>5</sup>

The Commissioner is now due to provide his final report to the Minister on, or before 4 March 2022, unless terminated on this date or earlier. The Commissioner is not inviting further submissions by granting this extension<sup>6</sup>.

Documents included in the public record are available at: www.adcommission.gov.au

<sup>4</sup> On 15 December 2016, the Commissioner delegated the power to request extensions of time under section 269ZHI of the Act to the General Managers of the commission. See section 269SMR of the Act and ADN No 2017/10 on the commission's website for further information.

<sup>5</sup> On 19 January 2017, the power of the Minister to grant extensions of time under section 269ZHI of the Act was delegated to the Commissioner. See section 269TAH of the Act and ADN No 2017/10 for further information.

<sup>6</sup> In accordance with section 269TEA(4) of the Act, the Commissioner is not obliged to have regard to any submission made in response to the SEF received after the end of the 20 day period for submissions, if to do so would, in the Commissioner's opinion, prevent the timely preparation of the report to the Minister.
